RUN-AWAY from the Subscriber's Plantation at Back-River, on the 31st of August, two young NEGRO FELLOWS, lately belonging to Mr. Bulloch, of Georgia; and sold in Charles-Town, by Roger Pinckney, Esq; named APRIL and PRINCE; APRIL is about 25 Years old, and pretty black; has a Scar upon one of his Arms, where he was burnt, when young.—PRINCE about 17 Years old; both very likely: It is imagined they will go towards Georgia, it is therefore requested of those who keep Ferries to the Southward, not to suffer any Negroes to pass without examining them: Whoever will deliver them, either to my Overseer at St. George's, near Bacon's-Brigge, or Back-River Plantation, shall have TEN POUNDS Reward, and all reasonable Charges, by HENRY SMITH.

The following is the PROPOSAL that was made to the PUBLIC, and found, by the learned Committee, appointed by the Honourable HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, to be too premature:

AS dangerous and irregular Methods, in the Practice of PHYSIC, are followed in this Province, from the Want of a general PHARMACY; the Subscriber proposes to the Public, the Necessity and Expediency of constructing a LABORATORY, chymical and galenical, for the Safety and Preservation of the Patient, and Credit of the Physician; as therein he will find Medicines proper and adequate to all Cases, which cannot be had in private Collections. He will join with the other methodical Practitioners in Town, to prove the Inconveniences they labour under, and the Advantages of which the Public are deprived. By not having a general Pharmacy, Physicians are obliged to conform to the common irregular Methods, having no other Materia Medica than those imported from Great-Britain, in general so adulterated, that the best Prescriptions may be rendered ineffectual, and probably very dangerous. Without a Pharmacy, the Physician cannot exercise his speculative Faculty, to find various Compositions, or simple Substances, adapted and natural to this Climate, or Correctives for vapoural Impressions, emanating in particular from this Soil; neither can he exert himself in the Analysis of the abundant Quantity of Vegetables, Animals, and Minerals peculiar to this Soil, in order to extract Substances pure and fit for Use. With Intention then, not only to analyse all the natural Productions, and to find genuine Preparations of all Kinds, he humbly requests the Honourable House of Assembly, to take under Consideration, if the establishing a general Pharmacy, and collecting a Botanic Garden, would not be the most effectual Means for regulating the Practice of Physic, and the surest to prevent Partiality; and encourage from all Parts of the World, the Republic of the Literati to concur with their Advices, to be judiciously examined by your composite Society. As the opening of a botanic Garden, without a chymical Laboratory, in order to discover, by Analysis, the Nature and Effects of Simples or Materials unknown, will be to the Public an useless Expence: The Subscriber therefore takes the Liberty to offer himself for the Direction of the Laboratory, chymical and galenical; and when erected, to collect, analyse, and read the general System of the Materia Medica: But in Case there should be found a Director and Lecturer, of superior Knowledge in this the most essential Part of Physic, after the Construction of the said Laboratory, he, the said Subscriber, will then be ready to resign in his Favour. It remains to acquaint the Honourable House, that the Cost of Implements, Vessels, Utensils, Glass, and Metalls, Apparatus, Furnaces, and all other inside Work, with some Materials for the Beginning, will amount to between Six and Seven Thousand Pounds Currency. Should this Proposal meet with Opposition, the Subscriber, having already Part of the Apparatus, will, on his own Account, undertake to complete the Pharmacy, if the Public will favour him with the Loan of Six Thousand Pounds Currency.—With this advanced, he proposes to admit, as Students and Apprentices, any young Men, having an Inclination and sufficient Education; and shall also make known the Time when he is to perform any capital Operation. The Pharmacy being completed, the Advantages arising from a Botanic Garden, will clearly appear.

THOSE who are indebted to the Estate of JACOB MOTTE, Esquire, deceased, are requested to make immediate Payment; and those who have any Demands against the said Estate, are desired to send in their Accounts attested, to JACOB MOTTE, } Executors.

BENJAMIN MATHEWES, Merchant, in Tradd-Street (next Door to Messrs. Mansell, Corbett, & Comp. and nearly opposite to Samuel Prioleau, Esq, Controller of the Country Duties) a Subscriber to the Resolutions entered into by the Inhabitants of this Province the 22d of July, 1769, having, in January last, imported sundry Goods from London (contained in Fifty Packages) inhibited by the said Resolutions; having also voluntarily agreed to store the same, till a general Importation should take Place, by the following Instrument, viz.

"I, the Subscriber, having received sundry Goods from London, marked M, in a Diamond, No. 1 to 50; and as it is contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the Resolutions, entered into by the Inhabitants of this Province, that I should dispose of them before the Acts complained of are repealed, do voluntarily agree to store the same, at my Loss and Risque; and I do hereby promise, to see them forth-coming to the General Committee when a general Importation takes Place in this Province. January Twenty-third, 1770."

(SIGNED) BENJAMIN MATHEWES.

And, upon being required to produce the same to the Committee of Inspection on the 2d Instant, having acknowledged, that many of the said Goods, so agreed to be stored as aforesaid, had been opened and disposed of, alledging that the same had been done by his Mother, Ann Mathewes (who is also a Subscriber to the Resolutions) during his Absence in the Country, And they, the said Ann & Benjamin Mathewes having been ineffectually, though repeatedly, applied to, to make proper Satisfaction to the Public, for such shameful Breach of their sacred Contracts: And the said Ann continuing to open and dispose of the said Goods, in manifest Violation of the said Resolution: The GENERAL COMMITTEE, after all possible Lenity and Forbearance shewn, find themselves reduced to the Necessity of advertising the said

ANN & BENJAMIN MATHEWES, as VIOLATORS OF THE RESOLUTIONS;

as Persons audaciously countering the united Sentiments of the whole Body of the People, not only in this, but all the Northern Provinces; and preserving their own little private Advantage to the general Good of AMERICA.

And as, according to the last Article of the afore-mentioned Resolutions (subscribed by the said Violators) it was agreed, that every such Violator should be treated with the utmost Contempt: So the General Committee presume, that the above Publication of Names, will be alone sufficient to excite the same; and to caution all Persons whatever, who have subscribed the said Resolutions, against having any commercial Dealings whatever with the said ANN & BENJAMIN MATHEWES, until public Notice shall be given of their Compliance with the reasonable Terms that have been proposed to them—till when their Actions must declare them to be obstinate and inveterate Enemies to their Country, and unworthy of the least Confidence or Esteem.

Copy of a letter found amongst a gentleman's papers of the first rank, after his decease in 1770.

The King of F—a's letter to his royal Highness Prince Charles.

Much beloved Cousin,

I CAN no longer, my dear Prince, deny myself the satisfaction of congratulating you on your safe arrival in France; and though the connection with the reigning family did not permit me to rejoice too openly at the progress of your arms, I can assure you, on the word of a King, I was sincerely touched at your misfortunes, and under the deepest apprehensions for the safety of your person. All Europe was astonished at the greatness of your enterprise; for though Alexander and other heroes have conquered kingdoms with inferior armies, you are the only one who ever engaged in such an attempt without any. Voltaire, who of all poets is best able to write, is above all men indebted to your Highness for having at length furnished him with a subject worthy of his pen, which has all the requisites of an epic poem, except a happier event. However, though fortune was your foe, Great-Britain, and not your Highness, are the only loser by it, as the difficulties you have undergone have only served to discover those talents and virtues which have gained you the admiration of all mankind, and even the esteem of those amongst your enemies, in whom every spark of virtue is not totally extinct.

The Princess, who has all the curiosity of her sex, is desirous of seeing the features of a hero, of whom she has heard so much; so that your Highness has it in your power to oblige both her and me in sending us your picture by the Count D—, who is in his return to B—; and be assured, I shall esteem it the most valuable acquisition I ever made.

You are frequently the subject of my conversation with Marshal K—th, whom I have had the good fortune to engage in my service: And, besides his consummate affairs in military knowledge, he is possessed of a thousand amiable qualities; yet, nothing endears him so much to me as his entertaining the same sentiments that I do with regard to your Royal Highness.

Were my situation different from what it is I should give you more.

P—m, January 12, 1747.

LAST Friday arrived here the Sloop Providence, William Chace Master, from Providence in the Colony of Rhode-Island, laden with Apples and Potatoes in Bulk, Onions, Cranberries, Beets, Cheese, &c. in Hopes of being admitted to trade at this Place, notwithstanding our Resolutions of the 27th of June last; in Consequence whereof "all commercial Intercourse and Dealing with the Inhabitants of that Colony had ceased and determined, and was not to be renewed till they should have made ample Satisfaction" and Atonement for their heinous Duplicitv of Conduct, they having refused a general Importation of British Goods, in direct Violation of their Agreement of the 30th of October last. Upon the Arrival of this Vessel, the People began to show great Un- easiness, and were desirous that Capt. Chace should depart the Port immediately: But, upon his telling them, that "the People of Rhode-Island had, at a late general Meeting, entered into new Resolutions, which had been approved of at Boston and Philadelphia; that they had appointed a Committee of Correspondence; and that he had brought a Letter from the said Committee, together with a Copy of the said Resolutions, and of a Letter from the Boston Committee;" he was not hurried away. Saturday Morning a Meeting of the General Committee was called upon this Occasion, when the several Papers above mentioned, were laid before them by Capt. Chace; but they proving unsatisfactory, he was desired not to dispose of any Part of his Cargo here, and to depart within Twenty-four Hours; which he promised to do. Accordingly, on Sunday Morning he hauled his Vessel off, from Colonel Beale's Wharf; Monday he fell down near to Fort Johnson: But still remaining at Anchor there Tuesday Forenoon, it created a Suspicion, that he was endeavouring (clandestinely) to dispose of his Cargo: Another Meeting of the General Committee was therefore immediately called, and Capt. Chace sent for; who, after some Hesitation and Difficulty, acknowledged the Disposal of Apples and Onions, on specious Pretences (to John Mills, a Non-Subscriber, who has lately, sometimes, been employed as a Factor, and is Colonel Beale's Wharfinger; to Caesar, a free Negro; and to a Vessel which he said was gone to Sea) and also a few Cheeses "upon especial Occasions;" but promised to sell no more, and to set Sail immediately; which he did, designing, as we told, for Georgia.

The Letter Capt. Chace brought to the Committee, upon which he founded his Hopes of being admitted to trade here, was dated at Newport the 5th Instant, and signed by Messrs. Gibbs, Tweedy, Tanner, and Stoddard; of whose Nomination, as a Committee of Correspondence, no Notification whatever had been received: The Copy of the Boston Committee's Letter, dated the 3d Instant, afforded no Evidence of their being yet satisfied with the Conduct of the Rhode-Islanders, which was to be taken under Consideration at a General Meeting of the People on the 5th: And by their Resolutions, it did not appear, that they had RE-SHIPPED, or intended to re-ship, one Ounce of the Goods they had lately imported from Great-Britain. For these Reasons, the last especially, the Inhabitants of this Province seem determined not yet to resume a commercial Intercourse and Dealing with those of Rhode-Island.

This Day the Three Months expire, after which (agreeable to one of the Resolutions at the General Meeting of the 27th of June last) no European Goods from Great-Britain, destined for Georgia, are to be transported thither in any of our coasting Vessels.

The General Committee being last Tuesday Evening informed, that Captain Jesse Hunt, of New-York, had, before his Departure, clandestinely conveyed some Onions on Shore, Enquiry was made for his Factor, who being called before the Committee, expressed the utmost Concern at having done an Act so highly offensive to the People in general, promised to do so no more, and to deliver up, for the Use of the Poor, all that remained on Hand unsold.

We hear, that His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, has issued Orders, that no Vessel from Cape-Fear, be permitted to pass Fort Johnson, till she has undergone a proper Visitation, on Account of the contagious Disorder that has lately prevailed in North-Carolina.

Sunday Se'nnight Mr. David Guerard, was married to Miss Martha Barnwell, Daughter of John Barnwell, Esq; of Port-Royal.

Last Saturday, a Snow from Maryland, bound for Cape-Fear, passed by this Bar.

The same Night, Mr. William Lesley, was married to Mrs. Mary Stokes, Widow of the Rev. Mr. Stokes.

Last Sunday, Stephen Miller, Esq; of Cainhoj, was married to Miss Mary Roche, Daughter of the late Mr. Francis Roche.

Yesterday arrived here His Majesty's arm'd Slooper Gaspee, Capt. Ralph Dundas, from Halifax.

A PARAGRAPH from Mr. WELLS's Paper of the 24th Instant.

BOSTON, AUGUST 27.

We hear Mr. Cutler, of Oxford, has commenced suits against two gentlemen in this town, for the damages he sustained when his goods were taken at Little-Cambridge, and brought here, and himself carted through the streets. The damages are laid at two thousand pounds each; the actions are to be tried at Worcester. [What a Comfort it is to the Americans as yet, that no MARSHAL OF THE ADMIRALTY can convey the above Gentlemen into the Imperial Court of Tyranny, with the same Ease, as their Names may be slipped into a NEWS-PAPER!]

Another PARAGRAPH, of a most extraordinary Nature, from Mr. WELLS's Paper.

BOSTON, SEPTEMBER 3.

Extract of a Letter from London.

"I am informed by a gentleman of undoubted veracity, and a warm friend to America, that in conversation with Mr. Burke, he expressed himself as follows: The Colonies treated this country with base ingratitude, upon the repeal of the Stamp-act; they deserve the severest chastisement for the indignity thrown on the merchants of London; and the merchants of New-York and Boston had presented an impudent libel on government, in their petitions to parliament in 1766, had discovered an utter ignorance as to the trade of America, and deserved no support from their best friends here. That he was amazed to hear any man ask for more liberty in America than the subject enjoyed here, for that the people of this country were free enough; that he would give full credit to Mr. Harrison, Collector of Boston, in any thing concerning the Colonies, in preference to any man living; that though some few men might have a private interest in vindicating the conduct of America, he knew the people of that country were disposed to throw off every controul, and resist every act of parliament, whether for the purpose of raising a revenue or the regulation of trade." [Could the most malignant Wretch, whose Heart sickens upon a Review of the strenuous and benevolent Exertions of a most amiable Character, which has ever been remarkable for the Mark of Humanity; could he, even if possessed of the Stomach of an Ostrich, digest such an infamous and outrageous Assertion, against a Personage "in whom Nature hath so mixed the Elements, that she might best" This is a Man indeed?]

"The FAVOURITE of the GREASY MOB" (that is, the English Nation) has had his Share of Compliments with the same Justice [See the same Paper of Mr. WELLS] in order, we suppose, to make America more enamoured with their justly adored Protector. Something ought constantly to be published, to recall our scattered Thoughts beyond what his Statue could do: And a Man remarkable for his Typhance and Sedition, is no Doubt, in some Men's Minds, a proper Object of American Attention. "Should Things come to Extremities, it is a Comfort for us, to know, that no good Man could hesitate which Side he would take," and on what Side those who are not good would incline their brawny Shoulders.

A PROPHECY.

THE Roman People prided themselves so much in their public Reputation, that they laid a heavy Fine upon a Lady of the first Quality, for making too free even with the Characters of the "SCUM OF THE EARTH;" But all rigid Virtue of that Kind seems to have sheltered itself within the Bosom of Scotland, as witness her Motto,

Nemo me impune lacessit.

And perhaps it is this happy and superior Regard to national Honour, that lets this virtuous and loyal People at such a Distance above His Majesty's other Subjects; and which it is not impossible might have given Rise to the following old Prophecy of an holy Anchorite in King Ethelred's Time:

"Englyshmen, for as much as they use to Drunkenlewnes, to Treason, and to Rechlelshes of Goddes Hous; first by Danes, and then by Normans, and atte thirde Time by Scot-tes, they shall be overcome."

George-Town, August 28th, 1770.

UPON comparing the Returns made to the Vestry and Church-Wardens, by the Collectors of the POOR-TAX, for the Parish of Prince-George, Winyah, with the GENERAL TAX-LIST, it appears that Numbers of Persons possessed of Estates in the said Parish, Residents as well as Non-Residents, have neglected to pay their several Proportions of the said Tax, and that for several Years past; by which Means, the Church-Wardens are seldom refunded the Expence they are at in supporting the Poor, and the Tax is unequally collected, to the Prejudice of those who are punctual in their Payments: This is therefore to inform such Defaulters, that unless Payment is made of the Arrears, by the first Day of November next, Executions will be issued against all such as neglect this Advertisement, without Favour, Partiality, or other Notice.
